President's corner

Fall

I'm baaaaack. After four weeks of weekend visitors, you'll be happy to know my smiling face will again grace the dance floor of 2LF. Our grandkids discovered that their old grandparents would take them fishing, shopping for their birthdays, and out to eat for breakfast, lunch, and dinner. Sometimes at a hundred dollars a pop. It was expensive, but we are finally able to spend some great times with these kids.

So, what did I miss? Music, dancing, and your smiling faces. It will be good to get back. I hope you have decided who is running for the board and, in particular, president for 2022. You do know that the president's salary for 2022 will be double what was paid in 2021. In the age of Covid, you'll be well compensated. All other board member's salaries will increase with the Social Security CPI increase.

We're having a Halloween costume party. Rick and TLF will present prizes for best individual and best couple's costume. We are asking our Colonial Shag Club members to bring Halloween-themed finger foods and desserts.

Well, that's the jist of it. I thank everyone for keeping the USS CSC on course during my absence and look forward to getting back to a "normal" Saturday night.

See you on the dance floor,

Tim Kroskey, President CSC
